HALF MILLION

RETAILERS ARE FIGHTING CHICAGO CATALOG HOUSES.

Declare These Institutions Are Driving Local Merchants Out of Business.

War has been declared on the great catalog houses of Chicago and other cities by the 500,000 retail merchants of the west says a Chicago paper. In one of the most striking economic movements this country has known, the small dealers are fighting, as they say, for their lives.

The mammoth institutions, employing thousands of workers, doing their business entirely through the medium of their bulky catalogues, spending no money in the communities whence they derive annually millions of dollars of patronage are forcing increasing numbers of home merchants to the wall and, so their opponents claim are "making commercial graveyards of once prosperous towns."

In this life or death struggle, jobbers and manufacturers also are involved with the retail merchants.

Organized Attack to Be Made.

An organized attack on the catalog institutions is to be made by the Home Trade League of America, which has existed for several months in the Monadnock building, largely as a publicity bureau, but which is shortly to incorporate and institute a more systematic and aggressive campaign against the catalog houses through a board of twenty-one managers, with a vice president and an advisory committee of ten members from each state.

The backbone of the league is formed of commercial associations, national, state and local in character, in Illinois, Wisconsin, Iowa, Michigan, Kansas and Minnesota. The officers of associations in scores of cities are in constant correspondence with the league, which will continue to have its national headquarters in this city. The officers of the league will be selected from the most aggressive of the leaders of these associations of business men.

Alfred C. Clark, manager of the league, yesterday outlined the policy of competition with catalog houses as now being conducted in a thousand cities and towns, principally in the middle west.

CURES CHILL AND FEVER G. W. Wirt, Nacogdoches, Texas, says "His daughter had chills and fever for three years, he could not find anything that would help her till he used Herbine. His wife will not keep house without it, and cannot say too much for it." See. Sold by J. H. Ochsenschlaeger, Lang Bros. and C. O. Ripley.

Fortunately for the fool he doesn't know he's a fool.

DAMAGE DONE BY FLOOD AND STORMS TO PROPERTY.

Four Lives Lost in West Virginia During Last Two Days by Drowning.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 19.—Conservative reports from the interior parts of West Virginia indicate that the floods caused by storms and cloudbursts during the past forty-eight hours are receding and that the damage will reach at least half a million dollars. Four deaths thus far have been reported. At Macomber, the greatest damage was sustained. A loss to the county in bridges being carried away will reach $100,000. At this place while Mrs. Belyard and her two children were standing on the front porch watching the waters which had already reached the floors, the porch was swept away. A moment later Belyard stepped to the door only in time to see his entire family swept away. Claudius Wolfe lost his life while attempting to ride across a bridge. When in the middle of the structure the bridge was washed away. The damage to the Baltimore & Ohio railroad will reach $200,000 principally in the tracks being washed away.

The most damage to private property was at Newburg where several buildings were washed away and nearly every house was flooded. A church at Evansville was overturned and washed away.

LIGHTNING TOOK HIS CLOTHES.

Bolt Leaves Georgia Man Stark Naked But Does Not Hurt Him.

Atlanta, Ga., July 19.—G. P. Terry, an insurance man, was stripped of his clothing and shoes by a bolt of lightning, but escaped physical injury.

Terry was out driving with a friend and took refuge from the storm in a negro's store on Frazier street. Terry's friend drove the team to shelter and Terry started to enter the store when the bolt descended.

The lightning hit him at the left elbow, passed up the arm to the shoulder, then down his back and both legs to his feet, completely divesting him of his clothing, shoes and socks. Terry was not even unconscious, but was rather weak. He was wrapped in a sheet and was driven home. Dr. Baird found four small spots on Terry's body where the lightning touched, but no real injury.

HALF MILLION PEOPLE SWELTER AT ELKS' PARADE.

Doctors So Busy Attending Stricken Ones They Kept No Account of Names.

Philadelphia, Pa., July 19.—It is estimated that twenty-five hundred persons were prostrated by heat today during the progress of the Elks' parade. The parade was one of the greatest seen in this city in years and it is estimated that more than half a million persons crowded into the broad streets to view the spectacle. It was the hottest day of the summer and long before the parade started spectators were falling by the dozens. The sun was broiling hot and the humidity was unusually high. Every hospital in the city was brought into service after those nearest the route of the parade were crowded to the last inch. Physicians were so busy that no names were taken.

There was but one case that resulted fatally. James Rowley, 44 years of age, of this city, died in the hospital after being overcome in the streets. Other stricken persons are said to be in good conditions with no prospects of fatal results.

DEVIL A BEAUTY, SAYS PASTOR. Holds Ideas of Impious One With Hoofs and Spiked Tail Wrong.

Waterloo, Iowa, July 19.—Rev. S. S. Hilscher, of Vinton, today on the Chautauqua platform here assailed the prevalent conception of the devil. He pictured him as a beautiful, seductive personage, with subtle qualities which attract rather than repel. No horns, hoofs or spiked tail are visible in his picture. He declared his belief in a personal devil, who, through his blandishments, exerted a powerful influence, secondary only to that of God.

Herman Billik to Hang. Chicago, July 19.—Herman Billik who has been on trial charged with poisoning Adolph Vrziil and his five children, was convicted and the jury fixed his sentence at death.
